

SUMMER 2022

BIOGRAPHY & HISTORY

- CHRIS PATTEN The Hong Kong Diaries (560pp) £30
Take a ring side seat to the handing over of the territory with the last British Governor
- HRH THE DUKE OF KENT A Royal Life (336pp) £25
Reflections of seventy years as a working Royal, in conversation with Hugo Vickers
- JONATHAN FREEDLAND The Escape Artist (400pp) £20
Rudolf Vrba: the jew who escaped Auschwitz, told the world & saved 200,000 lives
- GAVIN MORTIMER David Stirling: The Phoney Major (448pp) £25
Reassessment of the legacy of the founder of the SAS: military genius or self-publicist?
- ANNELI DRUMMOND-HAY Merely a Rider (224pp) £18.99
Autobiography of the trail-blazing equestrian. Winner of the Burleigh-Badminton double
- PHILIP SHORT Putin: His Life & Times (864pp) £30
Demolishing many of the preconceptions of his personality & preoccupations
- LESLIE THOMAS Do Right and Fear No One (448pp) £20
Leading QC on the need to hold the State to account from the Birmingham Six to Grenfell
- EDWARD CHANCELLOR The Price of Time (432pp) £25
History & role of interest rates on society from ancient Mesopotamia to the present
- STEPHEN GOLDING Oxford University on Mont Blanc (320pp) £30
Established in 1891, the 'Chalet des Anglais', home of the oldest university 'reading party'
- AMY ODELL Anna: The Biography (464pp) £20
How grit determination & family connections shaped the life & career of Anna Wintour

- MARK LUTYENS ED. 'Lut': Life in the Office of Sir Edwin Lutyens (64pp) £25
 Garnered from letters received in 1939, memories of the legendary architect
- JAMIE BLACKETT *Land of Milk and Honey (256pp) £20
 Free trade, Brexit & Scottish politics: Continuing struggle to keep the family estate afloat
- NINO STRACHEY *Young Bloomsbury (352pp) £25
 Avant-garde young bloods: Eddy Sackville-West, Julia Strachey, Dadie Rylands et al
- FRANCES SPALDING *The Real and the Romantic (384pp) £35
 Fresh look at English art between the two World Wars: Ravilious, Nash, Spencer et al
- DUNCAN SMITH *Gilded City (160pp) £25
 Explore the history of London through its mediaeval & early modern architecture
- TOBIAS JONES *The Po (288pp) £20
 From the Alps to the Adriatic, the history, culture & cuisine of Italy's longest river
- LEVI ROACH *Empires of the Normans (320pp) £25
 From Viking raiders to rulers of the Mediterranean: a global history of the Normans
- ELISABETH KEHOE *Queen of the Savoy (224pp) £25
 Life of Helen D'Oyly Cart: the organizational powerhouse behind Gilbert & Sullivan
- SETH ALEXANDER THEVOZ *Behind Closed Doors (384pp) July £25
 Entertaining story of the rise, decline & resurgence of London's private members' clubs
- IAIN MACGREGOR *The Lighthouse of Stalingrad (368pp) July £25
 The legend that was 'The Lighthouse': beacon of hope during the battle for Stalingrad
- PHILIPPE SANDS *The Last Colony (224pp) August £16.99
 Were the Chagos Islands illegally detached from Mauritius? A personal view of the case
- LEANDA DE LISLE *Henrietta Maria (496pp) August £25
 Misjudged consort of Charles I: from French Princess to Restoration Queen

FICTION

- MARTIN WALKER *To Kill a Troubadour (352pp) £20
 A Catalan folk group is barred from playing, then threatened. Can Bruno protect them?
- REV. RICHARD COLES *Murder Before Evensong (368pp) £16.99
 Will Canon Daniel Clement catch a killer? Secrets of the past will have to be investigated

- SADIE JONES Amy and Lan (320pp) £16.99
Three families escape the city for a country idyll, but this utopia survive the fault lines?
- CRESSIDA CONNOLLY Bad Relations (288pp) £14.99
Experiences had on the battlefields of the Crimea reverberate down the generations
- JOHANNA HEDMAN The Trio (336pp) £14.99
A daughter turns to the survivor of two perfect Stockholm summers for answers
- VICTORIA DOWD A Book of Murder (312pp) £8.99 pbk
A murder on a private island. The Smart women are on the case
- IAN MOORE Death and Fromage (304pp) £14.99
A famous restaurant has its three Michelin stars downgraded to two. Murder follows
- ALAN JUDD Queen and Country (240pp) £16.99
Former head of MI6 is tasked with preventing Russian defectors being killed one by one
- OLIVER HARRIS A Season in Exile (336pp) £16.99
Nick Belsey isn't your average detective. He is cynical, amoral & on the run in Mexico City
- PHILIP GWYNNE JONES The Angels of Venice (416pp) £16.99
Acqua Alta 2019. The body of an English art historian is discovered. Murdered?
- SIMON MAWER Ancestry (432pp) July £18.99
Three lives, now only existing as lines on a census, imagined & brought to life
- ELIZABETH NOBLE Other People's Husbands (496pp) July £20
Could one adulterous affair break friendships hewed over twenty years?
- CLARE POLLARD Delphi (208pp) July £12.99
Lockdown: a classics academic finds her obsession predicting the future blurs the present
- ANTHONY HOROWITZ The Twist of a Knife (384pp) August £20
A theatre critic is murdered. Can Horowitz prove his innocence with Hawthorne's help?
- ROBERT GALBRAITH The Ink Black Heart (1024pp) August £25
Cormoran Strike investigates the murky online world when a cartoonist is murdered
- VASILY GROSSMAN The People Immortal (352pp) August £25
A Red Army regiment faces the brutality of Barbarossa. Translated from the original text
- LAWRENCE OSBORNE On Java Road (240pp) August £16.99
Hong Kong in turmoil: veteran British journalist delves into the fate of a missing protestor
- MOHSIN HAMID The Last White Man (192pp) August £12.99
People waking, find their skin has turned dark. Why? From the author of 'Exit West'
- EMI YAGI Diary of a Void (224pp) August £12.99 pbk
A Japanese woman is tired of being the drudge. So she fakes pregnancy. But what then?
- AVA GLASS Alias Emma (400pp) August £14.99
Mission: rescue an innocent man, take him to MI6. He doesn't want to go. First in series
- SIMON MAYO Tick Tock (368pp) August £14.99
A ticking in an ear turns into a killer pandemic. Where has this illness come from?
- ANNE BOOTH Small Miracles (304pp) August £14.99
Will a lottery win save the three remaining Sisters of St Philomena?

COOKERY & GARDENING

MALACHY TALLACK Illuminated by Water (272pp) £16.99
Fishing: the sense of wonder & freedom that the simple act of casting a line gives

IXTA BELFRAGE Mezcla: Recipes to Excite (288pp) £26
Ottolenghi protégé claims the flavours of Italy, Brazil & beyond to enliven every meal

DEBORA ROBERTSON Notes from a Small Kitchen Island (288pp) £26
A miscellany of unfussy recipes culled from the various kitchens that have shaped her life

ALICE HART The Magnificent Book of Vegetables (240pp) £26
Over eighty tantalizing, uncomplicated, 'vegetablecentric' recipes for busy people

ANGELA HARTNETT The Weekend Cook (288pp) £26
Stress-free entertaining: recipes to please discerning guests & hungry crowds

XA TOLLEMACHE A Garden Well Placed (176pp) £35
How a home, Helmingham Hall, taught its chatelaine all she needed about garden design

DAN KEEL Swan: Portrait of a Majestic Bird (256pp) £9.99 pbk
Explores the myth, history & habits of the mute swan, Britain's most awe-inspiring bird

SABRINA GHAYOUR Persiana Everyday (240pp) August £26
'Golden girl of Persian cookery' provides over a hundred quick-cook, quick-prep dishes

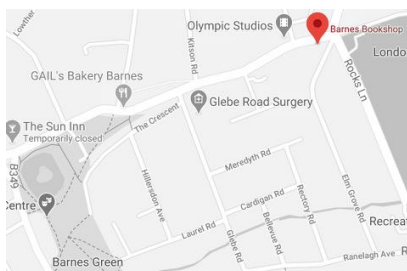

To order any of the books in the catalogue or for other suggestions contact us at:

Barnes Bookshop
98 Church Road
London
SW13 0DQ

Tel: 020 8741 0786

Email: books@barnesbookshop.com

Or order online through bookshop.org

We are a short and pleasant walk from Barnes Bridge or Barnes railway stations

A separate list of recommendations for children is available on request